

International Relations Major Planning Sheet

(Note: Use Adobe Acrobat Reader or Pro to fill out this form; do not use Preview on Mac)

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Core Courses¹ (20 credits):

Requirement	Course Title	Professor	Semester	Year
Economics ²	Econ-165: Intl. Development & Economics or
	Econ-213: Economic Development or
	Econ-218: International Economics
Geography	Geog-105: World Regional Geography or
	Geog-206: Political Geography [See note] ³
History	Hist-151: Modern and Contemporary Europe or
	Hist-161: British Empire and Commonwealth
Politics	Pol-116: World Politics
Methods ⁴	IR-200: Research Methods

Focus (12 credits in at least two disciplines,⁵ only 4 of which may be independent study):

Global Commons
International Institutions
International Political Economy
Peace and Security
International Ethics

Course Title	Professor	Semester	Year

Electives (8 credits):

From the focus and elective courses above, list those at the 300 level (12 credits minimum in at least two disciplines, only 4 credits of which may be independent study)

Foreign Language Requirement (Intermediate proficiency or above in a modern foreign language)

¹ These courses should all be completed within the first five semesters at Mount Holyoke College.
² Please note that the Economics Department requires Econ 110: Introductory Economics as a prerequisite for Econ-165, Econ-213, and Econ-218.
³ Students wanting to count Geog-206: Political Geography must have successfully completed A-levels or an IB in human geography and receive permission from a geography professor.
⁴ Should be taking in the sophomore year.
⁵ Disciplines are economics, geography, history, politics, and other fields. IR is not a discipline; most IR courses are politics courses by discipline.
 Note: A maximum of 8 credits may be transferred from abroad and only 4 credits can be at the 300 level. No substitutions are allowed for the required courses in the major.