

Decree No. 1

[17th January, 1966]

Commander
in Chief

THE FEDERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT hereby decrees as follows:—

1.—(1) The provisions of the Constitution of the Federation mentioned in Schedule 1 of this Decree are hereby suspended.

(2) Subject to this and any other Decree, the provisions of the Constitution of the Federation which are not suspended by subsection (1) above shall have effect subject to the modifications specified in Schedule 2 of this Decree.

Suspension
of some provisions
of the Constitution
of the Federation
1963 No. 20

2.—(1) The provisions of the constitution of each Region which are mentioned in Schedule 3 of this Decree are hereby suspended.

Suspension
of some provisions
constitution
of other Regions

(2) Subject to this and any other Decree, the provisions of the constitution of a Region which are not suspended by subsection (1) above shall have effect subject to the modifications specified in relation to that constitution in Schedule 4 of this Decree.

Powers of Federal Military Government and Regions
to make laws

(3) The Federal Military Government shall have power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of Nigeria or any part thereof with respect to any matter whatsoever.

(a) shall not have power to make laws with respect to any matter included in the Exclusive Legislative List; and

(b) except with the prior consent of the Federal Military Government, shall not make any law with respect to any matter included in the current Legislative List.

(3) Subject to subsection (2) above and to the Constitution of the Federation, the Military Governor of a Region shall have power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of that Region.

(4) If any law—
(a) enacted before 16th January, 1966 by the legislature of a Region, or having effect as if so enacted, or

(b) made after that date by the Military Governor of a Region, is inconsistent with any law—

(i) validly made by Parliament before that date, or having effect as if so made, or

(ii) made by the Federal Military Government on or after that date, the law made as mentioned in paragraph (i) or (ii) above shall prevail and the Regional law shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, be void.

(5) Nothing in subsection (2) of this section shall—
 (a) preclude the Military Governor of a Region from making provision for grants or loans from or the imposition of charges upon any of the public funds of that Region or the imposition of charges upon the revenues and assets of that Region for any purpose, notwithstanding that it relates to a matter included in the Exclusive Legislative List; or
 (b) require the Military Governor of a Region to obtain the consent of the Federal Military Government to his making such provision as aforesaid for any purpose, notwithstanding that it relates to a matter included in the Concurrent Legislative List.
 (6) The question whether a law made by the Military Governor of a Region with respect to a matter included in the Concurrent Legislative List was made with the consent required by subsection (2) (b) above shall not be enquired into in any court of law.
 (7) In this section "the Exclusive Legislative List" and "the Concurrent Legislative List" have the same meanings as in the Constitution of the Federation.
 4.—(1) The power of the Federal Military Government to make laws shall be exercised by means of Decrees signed by the Head of the Federal Military Government.
 (2) The power of the Military Governor of a Region to make laws shall be exercised by means of Edicts signed by him.
 (3) A Decree or Edict may be made known to the public by means of a sound or television broadcast, or by publication in writing, or in any other manner.
 (4) In so far as a Decree published on any date in the Federal Gazette makes provision with respect to the same matters as a Decree which—
 (a) was made known to the public on or before that date; but
 (b) has not been published in the Federal Gazette, the Decree published in the Federal Gazette shall prevail.
 (5) In so far as an Edict published on any date in the Gazette of the Region to which it applies makes provision with respect to the same matters as an Edict which—
 (a) was made known to the public on or before that date; but
 (b) has not been published in that Gazette, the Edict published in the Gazette shall prevail.
 (6) Any decree made by the Military Governor of a Region before 10th February 1966 shall, notwithstanding anything in this section (but subject to section 3 of this Decree), be deemed to be, and to have taken effect as, an Edict; and references to an Edict shall be construed accordingly.
 5.—(1) A Decree is made when it is signed by the Head of the Federal Military Government, whether or not it then comes into force.
 (2) An Edict is made when it is signed by the Military Governor of the Region to which it applies, whether or not it then comes into force.
 (3) Where no other provision is made as to the time when a particular provision contained in a Decree, Edict or subsidiary instrument is to come into force, it shall, subject to subsection (4) below, come into force on the day when the Decree, Edict or subsidiary instrument, as the case may be, is made.

1961 No. 20.

(4) Where a provision contained in a Decree, Edict or subsidiary instrument is expressed to come into force on a particular day, it shall be construed as coming into force immediately on the expiration of the previous day.

(5) In this section "subsidiary instrument" means any order, rules, regulations, rules of court or by-laws made in the exercise of powers conferred by a Decree or Edict.

6. No question as to the validity of this or any other Decree or of any Edict shall be entertained by any court of law in Nigeria.

7—(1) The executive authority of the Federal Republic of Nigeria shall be vested in the Head of the Federal Military Government and may be exercised by him either directly or through persons or authorities subordinate to him:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall prevent any authority having power to make laws from conferring functions on persons or authorities other than the Head of the Federal Military Government.

(2) The executive authority of the Federal Republic of Nigeria shall extend to the execution and maintenance of the Constitution of the Federation, as modified and supplemented by this or any other Decree, and to all other matters whatsoever throughout Nigeria.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (1) above, the Head of the Federal Military Government may either conditionally or unconditionally delegate to the Military Governor of a Region executive functions falling to be performed within that Region in relation to any matter.

(4) Subject to subsection (5) below, all executive functions which immediately before 16th January 1966 were vested in or exercisable by the Governor or any officer or authority of a Region by virtue of section 85 or 99 of the Constitution of the Federation shall be treated as having been delegated under subsection (3) above to the Military Governor of that Region as from 17th January 1966.

(5) Any delegation effected under subsection (3) above (including any delegation which in accordance with subsection (4) above is to be treated as having been effected under subsection (3) above) may be varied or revoked by the Head of the Federal Military Government at any time.

(6) Any executive function which by virtue of any such delegation as is mentioned in subsection (5) above is exercisable by the Military Governor of a Region may, subject to any conditions imposed under subsection (3) above, be exercised by him either directly or through persons or authorities subordinate to him.

8—(1) There shall be for Nigeria a Supreme Military Council and a Federal Executive Council.

(2) The Supreme Military Council shall consist of—
(a) the Head of the Federal Military Government;
(b) the Head of the Nigerian Army;
(c) the Head of the Nigerian Navy;

 - (f) the Chief of Staff of the Nigerian Army;
 - (g) the Military Governors of Northern Nigeria, Eastern Nigeria, Western Nigeria and Mid-Western Nigeria; and
 - (h) the Attorney-General of the Federation.

(5) Any function of the Head of the Federal Military Government or of the Supreme Military Council or of the Federal Executive Council or of the Military Governor of a Region may be exercised respectively by the Head of the Federal Military Government or that Council or Governor notwithstanding any delegation of that function for the time being in force under the foregoing provisions of this section.

(6) References in this section to functions conferred by a law do not include references to executive functions conferred by section 7 of this Decree.

10—(1) Where a power to make an instrument is conferred on the Head of the Federal Military Government or the Supreme Military Council by any law, then, without prejudice to the exercise of the power by the Head of the Federal Military Government in person or by the Supreme Military Council itself, as the case may be, any instrument made in exercise of that power may be executed under the hand of the Secretary to the Federal Military Government.

(2) Where a power to make an instrument is conferred on the Federal Executive Council by any law, then, without prejudice to the exercise of the power by the Council itself, any instrument made in the exercise of that power may be executed under the hand of the permanent secretary to the department of government of the Federation responsible for the matter to which the instrument relates, or under the hand of the Secretary to the Federal Military Government.

(3) Where a power to make an instrument is conferred on the Military Governor of a Region by any law, then, without prejudice to the exercise of the power by the Military Governor in person, any instrument made in the exercise of that power may be executed under the hand of the permanent secretary to the department of government of that Region responsible for the matter to which the instrument relates, or under the hand of the Secretary to the Military Government of that Region.

(4) Section 23 of the Interpretation Act 1964 (which is superseded by subsection (1) above) is hereby repealed.

Establishment of Advisory Judicial Committee

11—(1) There shall be an Advisory Judicial Committee which shall consist of—
(a) the Chief Justice of Nigeria, who shall be chairman,
(b) the Chief Justices of Northern Nigeria, Eastern Nigeria, Western Nigeria and Mid-Western Nigeria, and the Chief Justice of Lagos,
(c) the Grand Kadi of the Shari Court of Appeal; and
(d) the Attorney-General of the Federation.
(2) The Solicitor-General of the Federation shall act as secretary of the Advisory Judicial Committee.

(3) The Advisory Judicial Committee may, with the consent of the Head of the Federal Military Government, by regulation or otherwise regulate its own procedure and, subject to its rules of procedure, may function notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership or the absence of any member.

12—(1) Subject to this and any other Decree, all existing law, that is to say, all law (other than the Constitution of the Federation or the constitution of a Region) which, whether being a rule of law or a provision of an Act of Parliament or of a Law made by the Legislature of a Region or of any other enactment or instrument whatsoever, was in force immediately before 16th January 1966 or having been passed or made before that date came or comes into force on or after that date, shall, until that law is altered by an authority having power to do so, have effect with such modifications (whether by way of addition, alteration or omission) as may be necessary to bring that law into conformity with the Constitution of the Federation and the constitution of each Region, as affected by this or any other Decree, and with the provisions of any Decree or Edict relating to the performance of any functions which are conferred by law on any person or authority.

(2) It is hereby declared that the suspension by this or any other Decree of any provision of the Constitution of the Federation or of the constitution of a Region shall be without prejudice to the continued operation in accordance with subsection (1) above of any law which immediately before 16th January 1966 was in force by virtue of that provision.

(3) Any function which is conferred by any existing law within the meaning of subsection (1) above on the President or on the Prime Minister or any other Minister of the Government of the Federation or on the Council of Ministers, the House of Representatives or the Senate shall, until other provision in respect of that function is made by an authority having power to do so, vest in the Federal Executive Council.

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to any function conferred by the National Honours Act 1964.

(4) Any function which is conferred by any existing law within the meaning of subsection (1) above on the Governor of a Region or on the Premier or any other Minister of the Government of a Region or on the Executive Council, the House of Assembly or the House of Chiefs of a Region shall, until other provision in respect of that function is made by an authority having power to do so, vest in the Military Governor of that Region.

(5) Any function which is conferred by any existing law within the meaning of subsection (1) above, or by the constitution of a Region, on the Provincial Commissioner or Provincial Administrator of a province shall vest in the Provincial Secretary of that province.

13—(1) Subject to this and any other Decree, any court of law, authority or office which was established, any appointment, which was made, and any other thing whatsoever which was done before 15th January 1966 in pursuance of any provision of the Constitution of the Federation or of the constitution of a Region, being a provision that—

(2) is not suspended by this or any other Decree; but

(b) is modified by this Decree;

or which was deemed by virtue of any such provision to be so established, made or done before that date, shall be deemed to have been duly established, made or done in pursuance of that provision as modified by this Decree.

"Edict" means an instrument made by the Military Governor of a Region and expressed to be, or to be made as, an edict;
 "the Head of the Federal Military Government" means the Head of the Federal Military Government, Supreme Commander of the Armed Forces of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

17—(1) This Decree may be cited as the Constitution (Suspension and Modification) Decree 1966 and shall apply throughout the Federation.
 (2) This Decree shall be deemed to have come into force on 17th January 1966.

(3) Where a power to delegate a function is conferred by this Decree, that power includes—

(a) power to delegate the function to a limited extent only; and
 (b) power to delegate the function to different persons or authorities for different purposes, or in respect of different matters or different parts of Nigeria.

(4) In this Decree "functions" includes powers and duties.
 (5) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that any power to make laws conferred by this Decree includes power to make laws having extra-territorial operation.
